A temporary license issued pursuant to this section authorizes the holder to practice medicine and surgery or podiatry in West Virginia for the term of the temporary license, and includes full prescriptive authority. The temporary license is valid until its holder has either been granted or denied a license at the next regular meeting of the board.

§11-1A-10. Licensure Renewal, Inactive Status Licensure: Physicians and Podiatric Physicians and Surgeons.

10.1. With the exception of an initial license, licenses to practice medicine and surgery, administrative medicine, and podiatric medicine are issued for a term of two years. An initial license is issued with an expiration date consistent with the applicant's renewal classification as set forth in subsection 10.2.

10.2. License renewal for all licensed physicians whose last names begin with the letters "A" through "L" shall occur prior to July 1 of every even year. License renewal for all licensed physicians whose last names begin with the letters "M" through "Z" and all podiatric physicians shall occur prior to July 1 of every odd year.

10.3. A license shall expire, if not renewed by the renewal deadline set by the Board and will be published on the Board's website. An expired license is not a valid license.

10.4. To avoid expiration, an eligible licensee shall seek to renew his or her license every two years by:

10.4.a. Completing and submitting an application approved by the Board;

10.4.b. Certifying that he or she has successfully completed all legally required continuing medical education for the preceding two-year period; and

10.5. The appropriate renewal application is available online or through the Board's website. Physicians licensed through the IMLC licensing process may access the initial renewal application

11CSR1A

10.6. A licensee shall maintain current contact information on file with the Board including: a preferred mailing address; a home address; current practice locations; and a current e-mail address. A licensee shall notify the Board of any changes to such contact information within fifteen days of the change.

10.7. Communications and notifications regarding the renewal process will be conveyed to a licensee via e-mail.

10.8. A licensee shall be aware of his or her license expiration date and shall acquire and submit a renewal application and required documentation. Failure of the licensee to receive a renewal notification does not constitute justification for a licensee to practice on an expired license.

10.9. At a minimum, the Board's renewal application for physicians and for podiatric physicians shall include, and renewal applicants must provide, the following information:

10.9.a. The applicant's name, e-mail address, home address, preferred mailing address, primary practice location address(es), and telephone numbers;

10.9.1. Other information required by the Board for renewal of a license.

10.10. Upon request, the Board may renew the license of a physician or a podiatric physician who is licensed to practice in this state, but who is not currently practicing in West Virginia, as an inactive status license. An inactive status licensee shall not practice his or her profession in this state while maintaining an inactive status license.

10.11. An inactive license may be obtained upon receipt of a nonrefundable fee, as established by 11 CSR 4, and submission of an application provided by the Board. An inactive license is valid for a term of two years, and is renewable.

10.12. Upon request, the Board may convert an inactive status license to an active status license if the requesting licensee:

10.12.a. Completes and submits a change of status application;

§11-1A-11. Confidentiality of Complaint and Investigation Process.

11.1. When the Board receives a report submitted pursuant to the provisions of West Virginia Code §30-3-14, or when the Board receives or initiates a complaint regarding the conduct of anyone practicing medicine and surgery, podiatric medicine and surgery or practicing as a physician assistant pursuant to a license or other credential issued by the Board, the Board shall create a complaint file in which the Board shall maintain all documents relating to the investigation and action upon the alleged conduct.

11.2. When the Board receives a complaint or initiates a complaint regarding a licensee's or credential holder's professional conduct, the Board shall provide the licensee or credential holder with a copy of the complaint as soon as practical. If providing a copy of the complaint identifies an anonymous complainant or compromises the integrity of an investigation, the Board shall provide the licensee or credential holder with a summary of all substantial elements of the complaint. Otherwise, during the pendency of an investigation, complaints regarding a licensee's or credential holder's professional conduct are confidential.

11.3. All records, papers, investigative files, investigative reports, other investigative information and other documents containing information in the possession of or received or gathered by the Board, or its members or employees or consultants as a result of investigations, inquiries, assessments, or interviews conducted in connection with a licensing, credentialing, complaint, assessment, potential impairment matter, or disciplinary matter, are privileged and/or otherwise confidential. If the Board finds probable cause to institute disciplinary charges against a licensee or credential holder, he or she shall be entitled to receive disclosures of information contained within the complaint file as set forth in West Virginia Code §30-3-14(i).

11.4. If investigative information in the possession of the Board, its employees, or agents indicates that a crime may have been committed, the Board shall report the information to the appropriate law enforcement agency or state or federal prosecuting attorney.

11.5. The Board shall cooperate with and assist any state or federal law enforcement agency, any state or federal regulatory agency and/or any state or federal prosecuting attorney conducting an investigation or a prosecution of a licensee or credential holder by providing the entity information that is relevant to an investigation or prosecution. Information disclosed by the Board to any entity pursuant to this subsection remains confidential and may not be disclosed by the recipient agency, except as necessary to further the investigation. Information received by the Board from state or federal law enforcement agencies, state or federal regulatory agencies or state or federal prosecuting attorneys shall remain confidential and may not be disclosed by the Board except as necessary to further the Board's investigation or when disclosure to the responding licensee is required by West Virginia Code §30-3-14(i).

11.6. The disposition of a complaint is public information.
